

Memorial Book

In Loving Memory of

Joshua James Anderson
(September 20, 1988 - December 23, 2009)

They say it takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, a day to love them, but then an entire life to forget them.

♥️ This Memorial to Josh is a work in progress, please check back often and feel free to add your own thoughts, memories and photos. ♥️

Light a candle everyday, let's keep Josh's memory alive

Grief can't be shared. Everyone carries it alone, his own burden, his own way.-- Anne Morrow Lindbergh

I MISS THE DAYS WHERE WE LAUGHED ABOUT NOTHING AND
JUST HAD A GOOD TIME

Forever in our hearts

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awake in the morning's hush
I am the soft uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there.
I did not die.

Miss you

*It's so curious: one can resist tears and 'behave' very well in the hardest hours of grief. But then someone makes you a friendly sign behind a window, or one notices that a flower that was in bud only yesterday has suddenly blossomed, or a letter slips from a drawer... and everything collapses.
~Colette*

Miss you. d missing you more than you will ever know i miss

BEN'S Tattoo

The background of the entire image is a soft, textured wash of muted olive and beige tones. In the upper right quadrant, two roses are depicted in a painterly style. One rose is in full bloom, showing detailed petal layers, while the other is a smaller, tighter bud. The lighting is diffused, creating a gentle, romantic atmosphere.

Your Other "Mom"

January 13, 2010

I wish I knew what to do now, how do I help ease the pain? Should we even try to ease the pain, the pain is love. Is it right to try to divert from the pain? So many questions, so few answers.

I don't believe in a "God" but I believe in a higher power of one's self, the spirit of a person lives forever. Josh's spirit is telling me to keep doing what I am doing but I don't know what I am doing.

I'm so confused and sad, I want to absorb everyone's pain and deal with it for them but it's so damned hard.

Josh, I need some help with this!

Mom

This is for you, Josh

January 8, 2010

Spend all your time waiting for that second chance
For the break that will make it ok
There's always some reason to feel "not good enough?"
And it's hard at the end of the day
I need some distraction, oh beautiful release Memories seep from my veins
They may be empty and weightless, and maybe I'll find some peace tonight

In the arms of an Angel, fly away from here
From this dark, cold hotel room, and the endlessness that you fear
You are pulled from the wreckage of your silent reverie
You're in the arms of an Angel; may you find some comfort here

So tired of the straight line, and everywhere you turn There's vultures and thieves at your back
The storm keeps on twisting, you keep on building the lies That you make up for all that you lack
It don't make no difference, escaping one last time It's easier to believe
In this sweet madness, oh this glorious sadness
That brings me to my knees

In the arms of an Angel, far away from here
From this dark, cold hotel room, and the endlessness that you fear
You are pulled from the wreckage of your silent reverie
In the arms of an Angel; may you find some comfort here

Richie asked me (his Mom) to make a recording of this song, it reminds him of Josh. I was so touched by the lyrics, I had to post them, I am sure Richie and all of Josh's friends can feel the truth in these lyrics

Patti Danielewicz

Every day I wake up
I hope I'm dreaming
I can't believe this shit
Cant believe you ain't here
Sometimes it's just hard for a man to wake up Its hard to just keep going
Its like I feel empty inside without you being here
I would do anything man, to bring you back Id give all this shit, shit the whole knot
I saw your sister today
She look just like you
You was the greatest You'll always be the greatest
I miss you big
Cant wait till that day, when I see your face again
I can't wait till that day, when I see your face again...

Yeah... this right here (tell me why) Goes out, to everyone, that has lost someone That they truly loved (cmon, check it out)

Seems like yesterday we used to rock the show
I laced the track, you locked the flow
So far from hanging on the block for dough Notorious, they got to know that Life ain't always what it seem to be (uh-uh)

Words can't express what you mean to me
Even though you're gone, we still a team Through your family, I'll fulfill your dream (that's right)
In the future, can't wait to see If you open up the gates for me
Reminisce some time, the night they took my friend (uh-huh)
Try to black it out, but it plays again
When it's real, feelings hard to conceal Cant imagine all the pain I feel
Give anything to hear half your breath (half your breath)
I know you still living your life, after death

Every step I take, every move I make Every single day, every time I pray
Ill be missing you
Thinking of the day, when you went away
What a life to take, what a bond to break
Ill be missing you

I miss you big

Its kinda hard with you not around (yeah)
Know you in heaven smiling down (ehh)
Watching us while we pray for you Every day we pray for you Till the day we meet again
In my heart is where I'll keep you friend Memories give me the strength I need (uh-huh) to proceed Strength I need to believe My thoughts big I just can't define (cant define) Wish I could turn back the hands of time
Us in the 6, shop for new clothes and kicks

You and me taking flicks Making hits, stages they receive you on I still can't believe you're gone (cant believe you're gone)
Give anything to hear half your breath (half your breath)
I know you still living you're life, after death somebody tell me why

On that morning
When this life is over
I know
Ill see your face

Every night I pray, every step I take
Every move I make, every single day
Every night I pray, every step I take every day that passes
Every move I make, every single day is a day that I get closer to seeing you again
Every night I pray, every step I take we miss you big... and we wont stop
Every move I make, every single day cause we can't stop... that's right
Every night I pray, every step I take
Every move I make, every single day we miss you big

Josh, a day has not gone by that I haven't thought about you.

Rest in Peace Josh.

Josh,

I will always remember the late night phone calls! You use to prank call me all the time, and it would take me FOREVER to figure out who the hell it was. You always blew it when you would say something about Stanley... You would have thought I would have caught on...

I might actually miss all the times you tried to kick my ass at family events.

You were so different from the rest of your family. You truly stood out. You were outgoing, friendly, and so nice and kind. Its sad how the worst of things happen to good people.

*Last time we talked I told you about Shannon. He is in Heaven right now and I am sure he could use someone as wonderful as you to keep him company, until the rest of us get there!!! Take care buddy, we will see you someday!

Words cannot express our sadness at the loss of Josh.

We are here for you. Together, we can face the difficult times ahead.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The rose on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. They are set against a mottled, olive-green and brown background that has a soft, painterly texture.

Josh's dad and his Uncle Dave gave me the nickname "Gargamel" when I was in middle school. EVERY time I saw Josh, he'd say "Hey Gargie!". Tim, Teresa, Josh, Amanda and Sam were like family. They often babysat MyKell and took her to a lot of Josh's football games. Josh grew up with my brothers; those boys were always taking stuff apart, riding bikes, building things, anything outside that had to do with dirt or grease. Then they grew up and continued to take stuff apart and get full of grease from head to toe. Except the stuff they took apart was bigger - trucks, 4 wheelers, snowmobiles, lawn mowers. Josh was a great friend to my brothers, Richie and Casey. And so in-love with Chelsea. You could see it in his eyes. Josh will be missed by so many people. He touched so many lives. Rest in Peace, Josh.

Love,

Gargie :)

Josh, so many crazy memories with you. You were one of the first friends i had when i moved here from the south. We've gone on and off from hanging out a lot to not so much, but no matter what when we ended up hanging out it was as if we talked and hung out every day. I remember the summer before freshman year i was hanging out with you and we were going to go ride bikes to meet up with some other people and i looked at you and said, i haven't ridden a bike in four years, but you reassured me that id remember how and id be fine, you apparently didn't plan on the fact that i was going to almost topple over the first attempt but i figured it out after a little while. Hauling golf carts with my mom was always a fun time! i think she trusted you on those things more than me which is weird considering you wanted to be able to go tear up the golf course on one while we were waiting for her to tell us to load them up. and who could forget you stopping over at the house over summer if you saw either brittni or my car in the driveway. i will never forget you scaring the crap out of me while i was putting together aiden's toddler bed, thank you for helping me finish it by the way, but there's so many more memories you will be dearly missed and never forgotten!

I always remember the times of asking josh to go in his room and play his x-box and he'd always give me the same answer everytime i asked. The answer was always NO!! I soon got used to him saying no all the time so i gave up on asking. Everytime josh would leave to go somewhere (usually down to pattis to hang out with "THE BOYS") i would sneak into his room and play his x-box or go through and look at all of the stuff he had tucked away so no one would find it. I do have to admit he did have some pretty neat things. After i was all done peeking at all of his things i would try my hardest to put everything back the way it was so he wouldn't even know i was in there. That plan always work until he got home. No matter if it was a toy car out of place or his blanket wasn't the same was as it was when he left he found out everytime I was in his room. He would always get mad at me and call me names but he then got over it. Until of course he left and I did the same things over again.

love you big brother.....love your sis amanda❤️

This photo is from 2000 when Richie got burned. When Theresa and Josh showed up with these hats, it really made us smile because it was so fitting for those two boys. I think Josh kept Richie out of trouble a lot of times. I think Josh was at my house more than he was at his own sometimes. He was fun to have around especially when him and Norm would get going and teasing each other. Josh was always there for Richie when he faced hard times, Richie is lost without him.

Chelsea was the best thing to ever happen to Josh. Just last week, Casey told me that he admired Josh and Chelsea's relationship and he wanted to spend more time with them.

Josh was the type of guy that you could not help but love!

The background of the entire image is a soft, textured, olive-green or sepia-toned wash. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open flower with visible petals. They are rendered in a light, ethereal style, blending into the background.
